

The area is also dominated by traffic movement and the commercial strip consists of trade shops and outlets, with no local convenience shops.

This section of the centre contains no heritage items, or heritage conservation area listings. With a varied building typology, including some pre-war items, this area does not possess a uniform or identifiable character.

Desired Future Character Objectives

- (a) To maintain the predominantly two storey scale, with any additional levels (if appropriate) being set back from the street edge.
- (b) To maintain and remediate original shop fronts as part of any future development.
- (c) To maintain the mixed-use character of the centre by way of shops and services at ground level and residential units above.
- (d) To provide a clean environment, with waste disposal managed efficiently.
- (e) To ensure that the centre provides universal access to all users.
- (f) To promote low-rise well-maintained buildings, comprising ground floor business and retail offerings.
- (g) To ensure that new buildings and/or refurbishment of existing buildings are well designed and responsive to existing low-rise built form, with appropriate setbacks at upper levels.
- (h) To retain and enhance character buildings through the centre including 369A-371 and 377-381 Old South Head Road.

3.1.9 Rose Bay South

Figure 58 Rose Bay South Centre