

ROOFS

No one type of roof type predominates with most forms of roof represented in the Bondi Beachfront Area. The resultant architectural variety provides constant visual interest and is to be encouraged. Junctions of roof and wall also vary, with a wide range of eaves and parapet types used singly and often in combination.

Continuation of this character is to be encouraged and flat roofs without parapets are generally to be avoided

