

2.4. Limitations

This report addresses only the European cultural significance of the place.

This report does not address indigenous heritage significance, which can take the following forms:

- archaeology of indigenous pre-history
- post-contact history
- Present-day associations or spiritual attachments.

The report does not include analysis of the interiors of buildings, or their individual developmental history.

2.5. Identification of authors

The 2005 report was prepared by John Oultram and Susan O'Neill. The historic research was undertaken by Nicholas Jackson. Colleen Morris assessed the landscape, and Dominic Steel the archaeology of the site.

The history component (Section 3.1: History) of this revised report has been summarised from the 2005 report by the historian Meg Quinlisk. She also contributed to the assessment of significance and policy development. Hector Abrahams and Tonia Reed Abrahams prepared this report (Revised Version 2017), indicating where relevant text from the 2005 report has been used.
