

5. Assessment of Cultural Significance

5.1. Comparative Analysis

The War Memorial Hospital is one of a set of Victorian suburban estates in Sydney that survive to the present day with their Victorian-period spatial integrity intact. Several of these have become institutions through philanthropic donations which, in some cases, ensured their survival. While some continue to be occupied as private residences (e.g., Swifts, Fairwater, Bronte House), many others have become schools, and several have become hospitals.

This group of surviving Victorian suburban estates includes the following major examples:

- Cardinal's Palace, Manly (now part of St Paul's Catholic College)
- Gorton, Ashfield (now The Infants Home)
- Yasmar, Haberfield (now a juvenile justice centre)
- Mount Royal, Strathfield (now a campus of the Australian Catholic University)
- Aston Lodge, Randwick (now the Emanuel School)
- Aeolia, Randwick (now Brigidine College)
- Graythwaite, North Sydney (now part of Shore School)
- Greenoakes, Darling Point (recently ceased use as Residence of the Archbishop of Sydney)
