

Note: Terms used in this Plan are defined in Waverley LEP and the Act and override any identical definition in this dictionary. The definitions below refer to terms that are not defined by either the LEP or the Act.

A

A-Board (or sandwich board) - means a two sided structure generally located on the footpath outside a shop or arcade to advertise a particular shop or product.

Accessible Housing - Housing that is designed and built to accommodate the needs of occupants with mobility impairment (Australian Standard 1428: Design for Access and Mobility Services).

Active Frontage - Street frontages where there is an active visual engagement between those in the street and those of the ground floors of buildings. Frequent building entries that face and open towards the street, transparent street frontages, quality materials and refined details, and mixed landuse help to provide active frontages.

Active Solar Energy Systems - Systems which combine the sun's energy with local climatic conditions to achieve thermal comfort inside buildings with the use of mechanical devices.

Adaptable housing - Dwellings designed in accordance with the requirements under Australian Standard AS4299 – 1995 Adaptable Housing.

Adjoining Land - Land which abuts an application site or is separated from it only by a pathway, driveway, laneway, roadway or similar thoroughfare.

Advertised Development - Development, other than designated development, that is identified as advertised development by the regulations, an environmental planning instrument or a development control plan.

Affected Person - A person, organisation, company or the like who owns or occupies land that adjoins an application site; who, in the opinion of the authorised Council officer, may be detrimentally affected by the use of an application site or the erection of a building or carrying out of works on an application site; or who occupies a building (including but not limited to a boarding house or an individual unit within a residential flat building) that is the subject of a development application.

Alteration and Addition - Any alteration or addition requiring a development application.

Applicant - The person(s) making a development application to Council.

Application Site - The land to which the development application applies.

Attic – Refer to the term “Attic” as defined in the dictionary within Waverley Local Environmental Plan.

Australian Standard – The structural, technical and building requirements prepared by the Standards Australia Committee and approved by Council of Australian Standards.
